Good morning Sue

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity, I will forever be grateful for the learnings you transposed on to me from this course – I will always advocate for it!

I'm glad to hear the engagement is positive and I certainly see their development growing consistently post each session, I can't wait for them to utilize this skill in their daily interactions, I have no doubt it will make a large impression in their career as it did to mine.

It would be an absolute honour to do so, however, I will only be able to join in the last 30 minutes of Wednesday's session. I apologise for not having more time, but it is crazy during this period of the year – I hope this will be okay?

Have a blessed week ahead.

Regards
Seeshin
